Many Improvements Resulting from Boy Gardening Clubs

A general tendency toward great improvement in the appearance of lawns, backyards, vacant property and alleys throughout the city is said to be resulting from the work of members of the Public School Boys' Gardening clubs, organized by the Young Men's Christian association.

Almost 1,500 lads belong to the clubs, and over 1,000 of them are actually making gardens in the cash prize contests for which the Commercial club has furnished the award money. J. J. Somerville, assistant boys' work director of the association, who is superintendent of the contests, says that many of the boys are taking an interest in lawn and yard beautification, incidental to their vegetable gardens. The contest closes June 30, with a big exhibit of produce at the Young Men's Christian association.

To Jail Rather Than Tell His Business; Thought Burns Man

The original man of mystery was arraigned in police court and given a sentence of ninety days on the charge of being a vagrant. The name put down was F. J. Neff, address "Nowhere;" business, salesman for a firm that he refused to mention, and specific business here, strictly confidential—so confidential that he accepted his sentence rather than divulge its nature.

Counsel was secured for the prisoner prior to his arraignment, but the counsel refused to have anything to do with him, according to Captain Maloney. When Neff was asked who he didn't get counsel he said he wanted none but a member of the firm of Greene, Breckenridge, Gurley & Woodrough, attorneys for the Daily News.

The counsel furnished him was from that office, but after a consultation the attorney left and said Neff was a friend of his, but he was not going to represent him.

Neff, according to detectives, was arrested in suspicious company at Fourteenth and Douglas streets Sunday.

The sub rosa story is that Neff is a Burns detective who has been shadowing city officials for some time.
